"Honest, direct and complete. I get the who, what, when, where and why in almost everything you publish. You make the rounds, rub shoulders with the people and software I want to know about, and put it into a newsletter to me. I value your opinion and look forward to each newsletter. You've gained my trust." —S.W., Burbank, CA

STAY CURRENT IN A FAST-MOVING INDUSTRY with Creative Planet's Digital Production BuZZ. This live, weekly, industry-leading podcast focuses on digital production, post-production, and distribution. In fact, the BuZZ was the first-ever podcast covering digital production.
